BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, }
150 FIFTH AVENUE, }
NEW YORK, August 29, 1890. }

To the Members of the Iowa Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN: At the semi-annual meeting of the Bishops in May last, some points relating to the Educational Collections were submitted to them for consideration, and thereupon the following paper was adopted by them. To carry out the suggestion of the Bishops, I herewith send you a copy of their action, asking that it may be read before your body, and trusting that it may lead to more harmonious action in the several Conferences, and tend to promote all our educational interests.

Fraternally, your brother and co-worker,

C. H. PAYNE, Corresponding Secretary.

—o—

Action of the Bishops Concerning Educational Collections.

The communication from the Secretary of the Board of Education, which was referred to the committee on Law and Administration, has been duly considered and is herewith returned to the Board of Bishops to be read as part of this report. We submit, as the result of our deliberation, the following:

1. We believe that the disciplinary provision for the collection and disbursement of the educational funds is not as clearly expressed nor as full as it ought to be, in view of the numerous and sometimes conflicting interests to be served by those funds.

2. We do not deem it our duty to formulate any deliverance with a view to the removal of the obscurities from the law as found in the Discipline, nor to attempt a construction of the law that shall bind us in our administration, but expect each one of our number to act upon his best judgment as cases or questions arise in the Annual Conferences.

3. We do, however, express the belief that the Educational Collection, taken in all our congregations and reported to the Annual Conferences as the Educational Collection, should be regarded and treated as a connectional fund, to be administered by the Board of Education directly, or by such auxiliary of the Board as the Annual Conference may direct.

4. Where collections are taken for local schools or colleges, for building houses, for endowments, for paying teachers, or for meeting the current expenses of the schools, they should not be reported as Educational Collections, in pursuance of the provisions contained in paragraph 344, sections 5, 6, or 7.

5. All collections for the Sunday School Fund taken on Children's Day should go to the Treasurer of the Board of Education; and if the General Educational Collection be taken on the same day, that is, on Children's Day, the combined collections should be equally divided between the Sunday School Fund and the General Fund.

6. The only control the Annual Conference has over the money collected and reported as the Educational Collection is to designate the auxiliary that should administer it for the purposes of the Board.

We desire that uniformity of ruling and action shall prevail, as far as practicable, in all our Conferences, and therefore we suggest that the Corresponding Secretary advise the Conferences, in harmony with the foregoing intimations of our belief, and urge upon them the duty of causing all collections taken for schools or endowments to be reported under the head of "other" or special collections, and not in the regular educational column.

A true copy from the Journal of the Bishops.

EDWARD G. ANDREWS, Secretary.

A recommendation from the Philadelphia Conference, for the following change of the same paragraph was introduced:

SEC. 2. The General Conference shall be composed of ministerial and lay delegates who shall always deliberate and vote as one body, and never as separate Orders. There shall be as many lay delegates for an Annual Conference as there are ministerial; but the General Conference shall not allow of more than one ministerial representative for every fourteen members of an Annual Conference; nor of a less number than one for every forty-five; Provided, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction; and, provided also, that no conference shall be denied the privilege of one ministerial and of one lay delegate.

A motion of I. P. Teter prevailed, to the effect that the part of the recommendation providing that there be no separate vote of the clerical and lay members of the General Conference, be submitted alone, and the same being voted upon was lost by a vote of 21 to 51.

REPORTS.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Your committee to consider the religious welfare of the Army and Navy, report as follows:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the work of the United Christian Commission in its efforts to effect important moral reforms in the administration of the Army and Navy, and secure more adequate provisions for the intellectual and religious needs of our national soldiery.

Resolved, That we particularly regard the present force of Army Chaplains as entirely insufficient, there being but 34 Chaplains for 135 posts and stations, and that we join heartily in the petition to Congress to provide for such an increase of this force as the evident necessities of the Army require.

Resolved, That we deplore the recognition given by the government to the use of intoxicating drinks in providing for the maintenance of saloons at the Army posts, and that we urge the entire abolition of these drinking places, and the strict enforcement of discipline against drunkenness among the officers of the Army.

Resolved, That we favor the erection of suitable chapels at all the established military posts, and liberal appropriations for post libraries and reading rooms; and that such changes be made in the barracks system as will as fully as possible reduce the demoralizing influences of the enforced, and almost constant association of the better men with the most vicious.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to each member of the Iowa delegation in Congress and to the Secretary of War.

I. P. TETER,

BIBLE CAUSE.

The American Bible Society, by its efforts to spread God's word in all lands, commends itself to all Christian people, and its appeals for a more generous financial support should receive a response commensurate with its vast and important work. For many years the American Bible Society has been enlarging their facilities for the spread of the gospel. In 1882 it undertook to put a copy into the home of every destitute family in our nation, and this year has undertaken the greater work of supplying every child who can read, with a copy of the Bible of its own, especially for Sunday School use.

Collections for it in all churches have been so meager the officers fear their great undertaking will have to be curtailed. This would be a shame to all Christian churches, especially in America. Vast resources are in our power for the spread of the gospel through this society. Therefore, be it

Resolved 1st, That we fully appreciate the grandeur of the work, and return our profound thanks to God for the noble work of the society.

Resolved 2nd, That we give hearty co-operation to the American Bible Society, and that every Christian should feel that it is a precious privilege to contribute something each year to spread the gospel through this society.

P. C. HOGEL, Chairman.

J. C. CAUGHIAN, Secretary.

BLUFF PARK.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

The past season at this delightful resort has excelled all that preceded it in the number of attendants and successful carrying out of the program.

The Sunday School assembly, special days, and Camp Meeting fully met expectations.

The camp meeting, under the management of Dr. C. L. Stafford, was a time of marked religious interest, securing a larger constant attendance from the cottagers and tent-holders than any previous meeting. Special attention was given to the young, and they showed their appreciation of this attention by responding in large numbers.

The committee appointed by the conference at its last session to meet in joint session with a committee appointed by the Board of Trustees of Bluff Park to examine the articles of incorporation of the proposed joint stock company, met at Mt. Pleasant in December, and after due examination, unanimously agreed upon articles of incorporation, fixing the capital stock at $20,000.00, divided into shares of $10.00 each drawing 10 per cent. interests. Two-thirds of the board of managers must be members of the Methodist Episcopal church in good and regular standing, and the board of trustees appointed by the conference, to have the power to veto the program of exercises provided by the board of managers. We recommend the adoption, by the conference, of these articles of incorporation of the joint stock company.

The term of service of six trustees expires with this year, and your committee suggest the following names to fill the vacancies—Revs. T. J. Myers, W. E. Patterson, C. L. Stafford, E. L. Schreiner, Hon. W. I. Babb, and Frank LeBron, Esq.

The board of trustees desire that the second class be increased to six to make it equal to the other classes, and that Prof. Musselman and Mr. Osborn be elected to fill the vacancies in this class.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. SCHREINER, Chairman.

F. E. HALL, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee on Books and Periodicals would report that we are much gratified to learn that the business of our Book Concern has had a year of large success and increase, having made a net gain in assets of nearly one hundred thousand dollars, and an increase in sales over last year of nearly forty thousand dollars. There has been an increase of subscribers to nearly all our periodicals, though some of them have suffered a decrease, the largest decrease being in the Christian Advocate, of thirty-five hundred, and the largest increase being for the Western Christian Advocate of forty-one hundred and five.

We wish to record our gratitude for the large dividends to our superannuated fathers and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers.

We recommend a more diligent effort to introduce our books and our papers into the homes of all our people.

W. C. CHEW, Chairman.

J. A. BOATMAN, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

In view of the increasing demands made on this branch of benevolence in our church, and the great interests involved, we would urge the brethren of the Conference to renew fidelity in the presentation of this cause and wherever possible to meet the full apportionment.

We would commend to favorable attention the so-called mountain fund, and suggest that it be presented wherever the possibility exists of getting such a contribution.

In order to a more adequate knowledge of the success and needs of the Church Extension work, we would urge our pastors to use all the literature available for this purpose.

J. A. SINCLAIR, President.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Board recommends that the Presiding Elders of the Conference arrange for a missionary meeting to be held in each district at some time during the year, and that an effort be made to secure the presence and help of one of the General Missionary Secretaries at each of these meetings.

DEACONNESSES.

In the establishment by the General Conference, of the order of Deaconesses we recognize no innovation upon any principle of Methodist economy; but rather and solely a new and consistent expression of its characteristic spirit,—a spirit of reverent adjustment to the providential situation,—a spirit which has ever been the inner law of the evolution of our polity, and which runs, like a thread of gold, through all the history of our beloved Methodism.

We recognize that the direction, "Go ye out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in," is emphasized, as never before, in our country, by the marked and ominous tendency to congestion of population in the great centers of business, and by so vast an influx of foreign population, unleavened with the leaven of the gospel, as to threaten to paganize our Christian America.

We recognize with devout gratitude that the good hand of our God is present in raising up a band of consecrated and anointed women who shall furnish the church a mighty arm of power in the practical solution of the most difficult problem before the church of to-day,—the problem of reaching the unevangelized masses. We recommend that the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Conference give all the attention and encouragement practicable to this important work. In harmony with the action of our Conference, one year ago, we recommend that all pastors report to the Conference Board of Deaconesses, any deaconesses actively engaged in their respective charges—and also any consecrated young women who desire to enter upon this line of work,—that the Board may encourage and co-operate with them in securing such special preparation as shall thoroughly furnish them unto this good work.

Your committee further recommend that the Class of one year, whose term expires with this session, be re-elected.

We have greatly appreciated the visit of our gifted and cultured and consecrated sister, Miss Jane W. Bancroft, of New York. We have been instructed and stirred by her comprehensive review of the situation, as well as by the contagion of an intelligent enthusiasm.

We promise her and all authorized representatives of this great movement, so admirably meeting a providential exigency, a cordial welcome to our Conference and to our charges, and we personally pledge them our hearty co-operation.

J. E. CORLEY, Chairman.

C. F. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Your committee on education would report concerning the Iowa Wesleyan University, that in consideration of the reduction of rates of interest on investments, and increase of local expenses, we emphasize the necessity of following up the action of this conference two years ago, which asked the conference to raise $2000 a year for five years, in aid of the University. We also recommend Sabbath, November 9th, to be observed as University Day, and that the collection for the same be taken on that day and forwarded at once to the College treasurer, W. I. Babb, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

We recommend the following as visitors to educational institutions:

Iowa Wesleyan University—L. D. Johnson, T. B. Hughes, C. R. Norton, M. Simpson, Jno. Moler, J. McCarty, D. H. Emery.

To Garret Biblical Institute—I. O. Kemble, T. J. Myers.

DePaw School of Theology—G. M. Tuttle, J. W. McDonald.

We greet our Educational Society as one of our great connectional interests and recommend hearty co-operation with Dr. Payne, in promoting the work of the board by the appropriate observance of Children's Day, and the dissemination of such information as will stimulate the spirit of Christian education.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

To the Iowa Annual Conference, Greeting:

Acknowledging the good providence of God, and praying that the future may be as the past, only far more glorious, the Secretary of the Board of Trustees of your Iowa Wesleyan University, now presents the 36th Annual Report.

There are many things worthy of note in the last year's history of the school. Your attention is directed to the following:

1st. There is an efficient Faculty of instruction and harmony prevails among its members.

2nd. The Faculty will, this year, enter upon its third consecutive year without a change in its personnel; an immense advantage, other things equal, to the educating power of the University.

3rd. There was an increase of 52 in the number of students over last year, yielding an increase from tuition of a little over $1,100.

4th. The proportion of irregular students is reported smaller, and the regular classes correspondingly larger, causing a larger attendance during the spring term of 1890 than for the corresponding term of former years.

5th. During the year, through the prompt action and enterprise of President McFarland and Professors Grumblin, Curtis and Walters, the Buettner Museum of Natural History, was, upon remarkably easy terms, secured for the University. This collection is probably the most complete, in Ornithology, of any in the State, and contains beside, many rare animals, both native and foreign. It is considered by competent judges, a most valuable acquisition to that department of the University.

6th. Degrees were conferred as follows: Four received the degree of A. B.; five that of B. S.; three Bach. Mus.; eleven that of A. M.; nine M. S., and one D. D.

7th. The foundation of the new Chapel and Science Hall has been completed at a cost of $10,760.85, and stands looking reproachfully, over the Conference territory, at the men of means, and mutely pleads for money to complete the noble and much-needed structure. I may add that there is urgent need of means to push on the work, as much that is already subscribed is due and collectable only as the building advances. Delay in work is inevitable loss in the subscription list. Financial embarrassment of subscribers has already shrunk the value of the subscription several hundred dollars, which might have been saved by prompter action.

8th. The Military Department, under Lieutenant Dinwiddie, and the Conservatory of Music, under Professor Rommel, are very attractive and efficient in their respective spheres.

9th. The Treasurer's report shows no change in the general financial status of the University. I refer you, therefore, to previous reports for a view of the situations and needs.

10th. Although there was a handsome increase to the current funds from tuition, increased expenses and shrinkage in interest on endowment, caused a small excess of expenses over the receipts of the year.

11th. The term of the following trustees, viz: T. E. Corkhill, F. M. Gregg, E. L. Penn, George Haw, G. N. Power and I. O. Kemble having expired leaves their places to be filled at this session of the Conference. Also, in the second class, the place of Rev. J. B. Blakeney, is made vacant by death.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. CORLEY, Secretary.

VISITORS TO IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Your board of visitors to the Iowa Wesleyan University respectfully present the following report:

We attended the annual meeting of the board of trustees, and the review of the year's work before that body disclosed the gratifying fact, that our University had added another year of prosperity to its long record of usefulness. The President and the various members of the faculty have done energetic and faithful work in their various departments with the result of marked intellectual and spiritual advancement on the part of the students.

We take especial pleasure in making the announcement that the attendance was increased by more than fifty students, and that the receipts from tuition were swelled by over $1100.00. A corresponding advance for another year can only be secured by a hearty effort on the part of our pastors to send students from their various charges.

The addition of the Buettner Museum of Natural History, the result of private enterprise on the part of various members of the faculty, was one of the features of the year, deserving commendation. We approve of the purchase and heartily endorse the effort to secure the needed funds by private subscriptions. It is hoped that our brethren will co-operate in this enterprise.

The appointment of a financial agent was considered by the Board and recommended, provided a suitable man could be secured. Under existing circumstances the action is regarded by your visitors as consistent with the interests of the University. The imperative necessity of providing funds for the completion of the new Chapel and Science Hall, and the inability of the president to give adequate time and attention to that work, seemed to leave no other course open to the trustees.

In conclusion, we desire to say that our Conference is more than ever justified in the pride felt in our institution of learning. The future is bright with promises.

MATT S. HUGHES.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We, your committee, appointed as visitors to the Garrett Biblical Institute, were present at the annual commencement exercises last spring, and herewith submit the following report:

We were gratified to notice the intense spirituality which pervaded all the exercises of the school, and that its class rooms were centers, not merely of intellectual, but also of spiritual power.

We recognize in Rev. H. B. Ridgeway, D.D., and the members of the faculty associated with him, men eminently qualified for the positions which they in the providence of God are called to occupy.

The school is having increased prosperity, and we heartily recommend our young men to avail themselves as far as practicable of the advantages offered by this, our theological school of the west.

W. G. THORN,
E. C. BROOKS.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your committee on the Episcopal Fund offer the following report:

Most of the brethren, we find, have made their payments in full to this fund, according to discipline.

We have endeavored to bring up the deficiency of the delinquent ones, and urge upon all the importance of being accurate in adjusting the several claims of Pastor, Presiding Elder and Bishop.

R. WEESE, President.

S. F. BISHOP, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We note with pleasure the growth of the Epworth League, as unparalleled in the history of the Christian church, and recognize its organization to be the work of Divine Providence.

We believe that as Methodists we should band our young people together in societies which are in accord with the great connectional system of our own church, in order that we may the better inculcate a spirit of loyalty to our polity and doctrines.

Resolved, That we urge every pastor, who has not already done so, to thus organize the young people of his charge, in order that they may be able to do the most efficient work possible.

Resolved, That we sincerely appreciate the labors of Rev. J. C. W. Coxe, D.D., in assisting in the organization and encouragement of the work.

Resolved, That in the Epworth Herald we recognize a strong ally, and we would congratulate the management in giving us a paper of such merit, and urge both pastors and people to give it their hearty support.

Resolved, That in the removal by transfer of the Rev. C. H. Stocking, D.D., we feel that the Conference League has lost an efficient president, and as he goes to his new field of labor, our prayers follow him.

F. W. ADAMS.

A. S. LOVEALL,
C. V. COWAN.

FREEDMEN'S AID.

We view with great apprehension, the continued ill feeling between the races in the South, and believe that its continuance threatens the foundations of republican government.

We see, in the intellectual and moral elevation of the poor whites of the South, and the colored people, the only hope of averting this dire calamity.

In view of these facts, we most cordially commend the work of our sister denominations for these classes of our fellow citizens, and most heartily bid them God speed.

With a pardonable pride we point to the work of our own noble Society, the pioneer organization for the elevation of the Freedmen of the South, as it leads grandly on at the head of the advancing column. Its continued prosperity is its best commendation, and the marvelous results accomplished, stamp it as of God's ordering.

It is a source of great pleasure to know that during the past year, the total income of the Society was $266,874, being an increase of $45,246 over last year, and a very encouraging fact is that $19,343 of this was received from the Conferences in the South, despite their great poverty.

Although the general church is coming to see the vast importance of this branch of work, yet the imperative demands of the rapidly expanding field make these sums inadequate, and call loudly for increased liberality on the part of our people.

In view of these increased demands upon the funds of the Society, the General Board asks for $235,000 from collections only, to enable it to enter these widely open doors.

We urge upon each pastor in the Iowa Conference to observe the requirements of the discipline, and give at least one service to the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society, and if possible meet the entire claim upon the several charges. As a means to the end desired, we recommend that the Christian Educator, published by the Society, be taken by our preachers and people, as the best means of disseminating knowledge and inspiring interest in this work.

Next year being the quarter centennial of the organization of the Freedmen's Aid Society, we deem it appropriate that the year be kept by special services throughout the conference, and we hereby request the presiding elders to make provisions for such meetings.

R. WERSE, President.

A. V. KENDRICK, Secretary.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL INTERESTS.

We are in heartiest sympathy with the work of placing homeless children in Christian homes, as undertaken by the American Educational Aid Association and represented here by Rev. George K. Hoover, of the Rock River Conference, State Superintendent for Iowa.

We recognize that the Society in bringing these orphans and waifs within the hallowed influence of the Christian household, is conforming to the Divine order, and is an instrument in God's hand of saving these children with the power of an endless life.

In homeless and neglected children, left adrift upon the tide of sin, and liable to be caught by the undertow of vice and crime, we recognize the recruits for the ranks of the dangerous classes whose present number and appalling increase constitute a menace to the perpetuity of popular government in America. In the Christian nurture of the childhood and youth of our age, we see the hope alike of the church and the State.

We feel that neither as patriots nor as Christians can we afford to permit children for whom our Savior died, to become, in their relation, to social order here and moral order hereafter, "wandering stars unto whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever and ever;" and we know of no work more Christlike than the rescuing of these little ones.

We renew our pledge of cordial welcome and hearty co-operation to the representatives of this work.

J. T. MCFARLAND,
H. S. HILTON,
C. F. WILLIAMS.

MEMOIRS.

JAMES BOYD BLAKENEY.

James Boyd Blakeney was born in Kanawha county, near Charleston, West Virginia, September 24, 1827. He was of Scotch Presbyterian lineage, his grand-parents being among the early settlers in Western Pennsylvania. He was converted when only twelve years of age, and began preaching as a supply in 1850. He joined the West Virginia Conference in 1852, and remained near his early home for two years. In 1854 he was sent into the northern part of the Conference. In September, 1857, he was married to Miss Catherine A. Garrettson, of Baltimore, who, with four sons and one daughter, survives him in blessed expectation of "the marriage supper of the Lamb." The eldest born, Joseph, died during the pastorate in Morgantown in 1863.

Bro. Blakeney soon took a place in the front rank of his Conference, serving with great acceptability many of the leading charges. His appointments were: West Milford Circuit, South Wheeling, Clarksburg, Buchanan, Fairmont, Morgantown, Chaplin Street, Wheeling, and the Morgantown District, filling out in each case the full term of service. In 1870 he came West, joining the Iowa Conference. His appointments here were in succession: Muscatine, Old Zion (Burlington), Burlington District, Brooklyn, Mt. Pleasant, First Church (Ottumwa), and the Oskaloosa District. In the last office he had served a little more than two years when promotion came—the Master called him higher, June 18, 1890.

Funeral services were held in the First Church, Oskaloosa, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. H. S. Hilton; the Rev. I. P. Teter, pastor of the Simpson Church, assisting. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. C. W. Coxe, T. B. Hughes, J. T. McFarland and E. L. Schreiner, and our brother was tenderly borne to rest in Forest cemetery, the preachers of the District acting as pall-bearers. Memorial services were held in several of the Churches which Bro. Blakeney had served, when tender and loving tributes were paid to his memory.

Bro. Blakeney was a brave, true, noble man; a devoted husband, a loving father, a loyal friend. He was an able minister of the New Testament; a good preacher, a diligent pastor, a wise administrator, a trusted counselor. His life was pure, his character symmetrical, his reputation stainless. He combined in rare measure the gentleness of the lamb with the boldness of the lion. He had the courage of his convictions; yet he well knew when to speak and when to be silent. He was bold, yet discreet; modest and manly; a Christian gentleman, considerate of others while loyal to himself. He was held in high esteem by his Conference associates, as well as universally beloved by those to whom he had been a pastor. He was three times a Presiding Elder, and was a delegate to the General Conference of 1880, in each of these positions approving himself to his Conference and the church. His last illness was of brief duration, and was borne with fortitude and Christian resignation. It was not thought that the case was dangerous until within a few hours of his death; but the good man was not surprised or unready. To his friends and his pastor he said as the end drew near: "I have no merit or good works to plead. I am trusting alone in the merits of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ"; and so in holy triumph he fell asleep.

J. C. W. COXE.

CYRUS MOREY.

Rev. Cyrus Morey was born in Green Bush, N. Y., on April 11, 1816, and died in What Cheer, Iowa, on March 27, 1890, at the home of his daughter. He moved from New York to Ohio in his early boyhood; where he married Elizabeth Martin, on August 26, 1837, which union was blessed with twelve children, eight of whom with his faithful wife have preceded him to the other world. After his marriage he was converted and in February, 1846, was licensed to exhort, which office he filled with marked faithfulness and success until August 11, 1849, when he was licensed to preach. In the spring of 1851 he was admitted to the West Virginia Conference. On June 12, 1853, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Baker, and an elder on June 3, 1855, by Bishop Morris. His work during these years in the Virginia Conference was attended with much hardship and self-denial. God blessed his labors and great revivals were the result of his work everywhere he went. In the summer of 1855 he was transferred to the Iowa Conference, and was appointed to Troy. He had at this time a family of five children, and they and their mother were at Farmington. There he joined them and started for Troy. Arriving in that place they moved into a log house of two rooms, in which they lived until the cold weather made it uninhabitable. Then they occupied two other rooms which were so small that the chairs had to be put on the bed when the table was being set. But blessings and success attended his labors, and by June he had completed a nice parsonage and moved into it, and in the fall he reported at Conference many souls converted. His next appointment was Libertyville, where he found no parsonage and had to live in an old blacksmith shop until spring, when the people rallied and bought a comfortable house for him, and here too his work was blessed with a good revival. At Bentonsport, where he was appointed the following year, he found no church house, but by cold weather had completed a good-sized brick church, and in the winter a number of souls were gathered in. He was returned to the charge for the second year and again his work was marked with revivals. Then he was sent to Bellair, where there was no church and but a small membership, the services being conducted in a school house. God wonderfully blessed his labors, and many joined the church. He was next sent to Centerville. During the first year here his son Joseph went to the war, and during the second year death claimed their little daughter Ida. In Attica, where scores were saved as the result of his ministry, death again entered his home, claiming his little Emma.

After a good year in Sigourney he moved to Brooklyn, which then included Costa and Victor, and he was the first person who ever preached a sermon in the last named place. From here he moved to Wilton Junction, this circuit then including what is now Wilton, Muscatine and Sweetland Center circuits. After two years he went to West Liberty, which was then a large circuit and he had a revival at each point. He was then sent to Blue Grass circuit. Here we copy from his own memoranda: "Preached at Centre Grove, September 12, 1869. This makes my 15th year in the Iowa Conference. I have been present at all of its sessions, and have received into the church twenty-one hundred and forty-five members." Scores were converted through his labors that year. The next year he was sent to Durant, where he built a new church, and was then sent to Marengo, and from there to Eddyville, where he stayed two years and had revivals each year. Then he went to New Sharon and from there to Kellogg, where he had one of the grandest revivals of his entire life; and after two years he moved to Lynnvillle and then to Springfield, where again he records: "The Lord seemed to bless more than ever here, and such a revival I never witnessed." After two years he moved to Beacon, remained two years and was then sent to Eddyville for the second time. After one year he was appointed conference evangelist, and in that year he held successful meetings at Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, Chillicothe and other places. After one year of this work his sight and hearing gave out, and he located at What Cheer, where he spent the remainder of his days. His presence in church was always regarded as a blessing by people and preacher. He was one of those men who kept sweet as they grow old. His last illness was heart trouble.

J. W. LEWIS.

CATHARINE BAMFORD.

Catharine Bamford was born in Ohio, April 28, 1831, and died at Keota, Iowa, March 16, 1890, aged 59 years. She was married to Rev. George W. Bamford in 1850, and shared with him the trials, sorrows and triumphs of the itinerancy for twenty-two years, until his death at Winfield, Iowa, April, 1871.

She was noted for her pleasant, cheerful disposition, her solid earnest piety. She, with her husband, was always beloved by all in every charge they served, and left in every place hosts of friends who always spoke of them with kindest regard.

In Keota, where she had her home for sixteen years next preceeding her death, she was honored and esteemed as was no other. She was one of the excellent ones, and the entire community was moved with sorrow at her death. Her bright countenance is missed in the church, her voice is forever silent among the worshippers below. The hearts of many in the Iowa Conference were sad when it was known she was gone. But her memory lingers with us, as do the notes of a beautiful song. We shall meet her above in the circle of the heavenly household.

MRS. J. C. W. COXE.

Mary F. Shaw was born in Hancock, Mass., March 20, 1841, and died in Washington, Iowa, November 11, 1889. She was converted when but thirteen years of age, and was received into full membership in the North Second Street Methodist Episcopal church, in Troy, New York, October 8, 1854. She remained a devoted and active member of this church until shortly after her marriage, January 4, 1862, to J. C. W. Coxe. In 1864 her husband joined the Vermont Conference, and for more than twenty-five years an itinerant's home was made blessed by her cheerful presence and loving companionship. Four children brightened the home, and came to maturity under her gentle and gracious guidance, and now revere her memory. Her's was a brave, cheery, helpful spirit. Her piety was deep, strong, steadfast, though quiet, unobtrusive, undemonstrative. She loved the church fervently, and rejoiced in its prosperity. She took a keen interest in all that concerned the kingdom of God, and watched eagerly every forward movement, in church and State, which promised larger liberty and more exalted privilege—to men or women. Every moral reform found in her a loyal ally. Yet her kingdom was the home, and in it she ruled all hearts. There her patience, gentleness, sunny cheerfulness, made a haven toward which the heart and feet of her husband turned with joy from his wide wanderings. From one of his pilgrimages he came to find the light gone out—suddenly—forever. On Saturday, November 9, he went away, leaving the dear wife in usual health. On Monday, November 11, when returning home from a social call, she was stricken down with cerebral hemorrhage, and died within three hours. Her husband did not learn of his bereavement until an hour later, and could not reach home until five hours after the end came. To his sorrowing heart, and those of his children, kind friends rendered every possible loving ministry. Messages and letters from near and far bore words of comfort, and tender tributes of love. The funeral services were in charge of the pastor, Bro. W. R. Stryker, who was assisted by Bros. W. G. Wilson, J. B. Blakeney, and C. L. Stafford; and on Wednesday, November 13, the dear wife and cherished mother was laid to rest in "God's Acre" in Washington—until the resurrection of the just.

I will not think of thee as gone afar
 To some invisible and distant shore,
 Unreached by human eye or earthly lore,
 Farther from me than the remotest star
 Where undiscovered constellations are—
 The sparkling dust of heaven's eternal floor:
 But rather say, "Why should my heart be sore?
 After the long day's tumult, toil and jar
 Thy work is done a little while before
 My own, and thou hast entered, gladly free,
 Into another room, and left the door
 Of its calm peace and rest unclosed for me
 To follow soon—and in a moment more,
 My darling, I am coming after thee."

MRS. G. N. POWER.

Matilda Brown Power was born in Leesburg, Highland county, Ohio, on August 20, 1831, and died in Keokuk, Iowa, on August 9, 1890. In February of 1854, while teaching in the public schools in Cincinnati, she was brought into the enjoyment of a most satisfactory assurance of her acceptance with God. So clear and convincing was her conversion that she never had a moment's doubt, while all with whom she was associated recognized the fact that old things had passed away, and to her all things had become new. She was always of a cheerful nature, and possessed with it a wonderful magnetism that drew around her a large circle of friends. The beauty and fragrance of her Christian life soon brought all to recognize the power manifested in her as divine, and many of them through her influence were brought to accept the truth, and show forth its emancipating power. After careful thought and study of doctrine and polity she associated herself with the Methodist Episcopal church. She became at once an active advocate and not an apologist. Her influence as a Christian was immediately felt by her pupils and associate teachers.

On August 12, 1856, she married Rev. G. N. Power, and in September they came to Iowa, and entered upon the work of the ministry in the Iowa Conference. For this new relation and work she had made a full surrender. Never after did she count her life dear unto herself if she might by any means win souls for Christ and the church. It was the privilege of the writer, though but a youth at the time, to become acquainted with her in one of the early pastorates served by her husband in the conference, and never have I known a wife that entered more heartily into the work of her husband than did she. Of a timid and positively shrinking nature, under a sense of duty she rose to a manifestation of the courage of a heroine. She entered the homes of the parishoners of their charges with such matchless gentleness and love that she soon drew all to her. If the young wanted sympathy in the hour of trial and sadness, in her they found a sympathizing friend, while the aged were cheered by her gentle nature and deeply pious experience. As a Sabbath School teacher and superintendent she was a model. She made it a rule to never appear before her class or school without having sought divine aid, and always with the most careful preparation of the lesson. So inlaid in her own mind and soul was the truth to be presented that all soon caught a glimpse of the radiance that illuminated her path and thrilled her soul. In her was found also the ideal class leader. Instinctively she appeared to enter into the feelings and experience of the members of her class. If they were not in their places she sought them in their homes, and soon impressed them that she was interested in their souls, and their presence was secured. As an organizer of the women of the church in every good work she had no superior, whether it was in looking after strangers, or the unsaved, or in providing for the temporalities of the church. If a church or a parsonage was to be built she soon had the women of the charge organized and in active work. When the Ladies and Pastors' Christian Union was organized, in her it found a faithful servant. For years she was the president of the Conference Society, and continued in this work until the organization of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in 1870. Soon her soul was all aglow with the spirit of this work. She had early in her Christian life caught the spirit of Wesley, "The world is my parish," and she at once entered upon the work; in a quiet way, of organizing auxiliaries in the charges with which she was connected, never for a moment thinking that the circle would widen and that she would be called to act as one of the prominent factors in the great work of carrying the gospel to the benighted women of heathendom, and her name become a synonym of increasing labor, and overcoming faith and energy. Her name stands to-day prominent among the forceful characters in this noble work, and she is known and loved because of her work, by multiplied thousands in Christian and heathen lands. God wondrously blessed her in this work, and her soul was thrilled with the thought of becoming a co-laborer with the Master in saving the millions of benighted heathen. During the last eight years she has been the secretary of the Iowa Conference W. F. M. Society. Through all these years she was a constant sufferer, yet she did not falter in her work. With assistance she has frequently left her couch and traveled a thousand or more of miles to attend the meetings of the Executive Board, or hundreds of miles to the Branch meetings. During this long period of suffering she would frequently write from seven to eight hundred letters a year, most of the time confined to her bed. Gradually the fell destroyer carried on his work, yet she never ceased her labors nor relinquished her lease on life. The last day she spent on earth, not more than two hours before her departure, she dictated two letters in the interest of the work to which she had given the energies of her being. Such was her versatility or ability to turn her mind and heart to subjects other than the one consuming her very life, that with great acceptability, and profit to those who heard her, when occasion required she would fill the pulpit for her husband or others, yet so retiring in nature, and distrustful of her ability, that she never intruded herself, and after her best efforts there was often an earnest desire expressed by her that she might have done more, not for herself, but for the Master. As a presiding officer she was self-possessed, considerate and winning; as a counselor she was wise; as a friend she was to be trusted, as a wife she was devoted. "Her price was far above rubies.....The heart of her husband did safely trust in her. . . . . She opened her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue was the law of kindness; she looked well to the ways of her household, . . . . . and her husband praiseth her, . . . . . and her own works praise her." As a Christian she was devoted and laborious. Of her it may be truthfully said, "She hath done what she could," and though dead she yet speaketh, for her works do follow her. Through her removal earth is poorer, but heaven is enriched. The funeral services were conducted by the writer at the home in Keokuk, Iowa, in the presence of a large gathering of the people, and a number of the ministers of the Conference who were in attendance. The remains were then taken to Burlington, Iowa, and laid to rest.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Lord's Day ought to be observed as a holy day, in order to man's highest physical and spiritual good and our national welfare; and

WHEREAS, Its sanctity is being constantly destroyed, by certain social customs, by unnecessary traffic and travel, by the greed of corporations and individuals, by outdoor sports, by foreign immigration, by the circulation of Sunday newspapers, by the distribution of Sunday mail, and by various other deceptive devices; and

WHEREAS, Such violations are not only unchecked by civic authorities, but often encouraged by the lax opinions and open practices of our ministers, laymen and summer gatherings;

Resolved, 1st, That we deprecate and condemn all opinions, customs, and practices that tend to degrade and destroy the sanctity of the Lord's Day;

2nd, That we will emphasize, more strongly and frequently in our pulpits, the obligation and advantage of keeping God's Day holy, and encourage every wise movement toward a wide-spread rescue of our American Sabbath from its present disgrace, by better State and national legislation.

3rd, That we commend the organization and work of the American Sabbath Union, through whose efforts chiefly 70,000 men were last year liberated from Sabbath bondage.

4th, That we will help to scatter good literature upon this subject.

5th, That, through the Secretary of this Conference we hereby respectfully petition the honorable Commission of the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago in 1893, that the grounds and buildings of such Exposition be kept closed on the Lord's Day, in accordance with the tradition and sentiment of our Christian American Republic.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Ours is an age of great material prosperity; of the wide diffusion of knowledge; of heroic Christian aggression and glorious conquest. The all-manifesting light of spiritual religion; of profound philosophy; of true science, has mingled its glory to dispel the darkness of the nations. Christianity has made more progress in the last eight decades than in all the previous centuries.

While there is so much in the retrospect and in the outlook to inspire the desponding and to evoke gratitude, yet there is much to admonish us of the need of vigilance and heroic effort. Complete victory is not sure until "the last armed foe expires." Nothing is well and safely done while there remains so much to do. A close scrutiny of the field reveals the following foes and forces, opposing the dawn of Millenium glory:

Wealth has increased to a degree unparalleled in all the ages preceding, and with it there has crept into the church a love for the theatre, the dance, cards, the excitement and gambling of the race course, as seen in our modern race tracks, euphemistically called agricultural fairs. In many of our churches official members, as well as many of the rank and file of the church, will not tolerate even a Christian testimony, and protest against these great abuses, to say nothing of the enforcement of discipline.

Unless these evils are checked, with their associated evil of Sabbath breaking, the church will lose its hold upon the respect of the world. The antidote for these evils is a general rebuke of them by our bishops, pastors and presiding elders, and the declaration to the world that no pastor will suffer because of his fidelity to his vows and the laws of the church, when he lifts up his voice like a trumpet against them.

There is need of greater watchfulness and devotion on the part of American Christianity, against the arms of Romanism in this land, as the foe of our common school system.

It is also needful that our ministry inform themselves of the necessities of our Conference college, and preach one sermon each year, at least, on sanctified learning.

The great need of our pastors and people is the baptism of the Holy Ghost, which enthrones upon the soul liberty, light and love. Ours is an age of organization, and the increase of machinery. There is great danger that organization may become a substitute for the power from on high.

There is also need of greater fidelity toward our church benevolences, and the application of Gospel principles in our methods of collecting for them.

The antidote for all the evils, that the church dreads and that curses our world, is salvation. Let us resolve that this blessed revival, begun in this Conference session, shall be continued in all our charges, until our Conference shall be wrapt in an atmosphere set on fire by the Holy Spirit.

J. W. HACKLEY,
J. W. LEWIS.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Only a most cursory view of the past suffices to show that, as a nation, we have already come to where we are brought face to face with problems which have been potent factors in the downfall of the nations of the past, but for the solution of which, in all history, there is no precedent. Some of these problems are: The relation of capital and labor; unrestricted immigration; the accumulation of great fortunes in the hands of the few; the massing of great numbers of the most dangerous elements in our cities; the decline of the patriotic spirit and the consequent struggle for political preferment; the increasing illiteracy among our people in certain parts of the country; and the growing political power of rum and Romanism.

We believe that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only sufficient cure for these evils, and while we are uncompromisingly opposed to anything like a union of church and State we do insist that this is a Christian nation and that the affairs of the government shall be conducted in accordance with the morality of the Holy Bible.

J. C. KENDRICK, President.

W. G. WILSON, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION AND TRACTS.

We desire to acknowledge, with gratitude, the success which, under the blessing of God, has manifested itself through the labors of his servants. 1,200 new Methodist Episcopal Sunday Schools have been added, and some 4,000 schools have been aided by the funds of the Sunday School Union. There are now 2,265,000 scholars enrolled, which number exceeds that of our church membership.

Recognizing the importance of the Christian culture of the young, and the impressibility of youth, and that the membership of the church of the future will be largely recruited from the Sunday School, we would urge our pastors to use every effort to secure the adoption, by the schools in their respective charges, of our own literature, because, 1st, Having regard to its high intellectual character, it is as cheap as the cheapest. 2d, It is trustworthy in orthodoxy, and 3d, It will tend to cultivate that loyalty to our own church which is so essential to our future progress.

We would also urge the circulation of our Tract literature which, under 25,000 titles, touches almost every phase of doctrinal, experimental and other subjects. We would call attention to the facilities given by our Tract Society to pastors desiring to circulate this literature, and remind them that upon application to the chairman of the Tract Committee at either of the Depositories, tracts to half the amount of the collection will be furnished gratuitously.

We recommend the Conference do accept the apportionment made to the Conference by the Sunday School Union and Tract Society and request the Presiding Elders to divide the same to the charges, and the pastors raise the full apportionment to the charges.

Resolved, That as a Conference we acknowledge the extensive and efficient labors of our brother, J. C. W. Coxe, D.D., the Western Agent of these Societies, and would earnestly request him to aid us, as he may be able, in raising the full amount apportioned our Conference during the ensuing year. (Signed.) W. A. SWAIN, Chairman.

FELIX H. PICKWORTH, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the patriotism of those members of the last General Assembly of Iowa who stood by us in our struggle with the saloon; and, while they were unable to strengthen our prohibitory laws by additional enactments, we rejoice that they were able to defeat the effort to repeal them. We hereby express our determination, by the support of such candidates as are true to the cause of prohibition, to see to it that our prohibitory code be not again put in such peril.

Resolved, 2nd, That we express our sense of gratitude to the noble United States Senator from this State who resides within the bounds of our Conference, the Hon. James F. Wilson, who was the author of the bill by which the country was at last rescued from the domination of the Original Package saloon, and our satisfaction with the fact that the Iowa delegation in Washington, both of the Senate and House of Representatives, with a single exception, supported that measure.

Resolved, 3rd, That prohibition does prohibit in a large degree,—the degree being measured by the moral and religious sentiment of the people.

Resolved, 4th, That we believe that a sweeping revival of religion would do more for the cause of temperance and the enforcement of the law than all political influence combined.

I. P. TETER, Secretary.

TOBACCO.

As a conference we take no backward step in our deliverances relative to the use of tobacco. We believe it to be one of the very great evils of the age; therefore,

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to be outspoken against this mighty evil, and do all in our power, both in public and private, to persuade men to abandon the use of it.

Resolved, That we pledge hearty co-operation with the laws of the State to arrest the sale of it to minors.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the Presiding Elders should arrest the character of any man in their several districts known by them to use tobacco in violation of the sacred promise to abstain from its use, given before God and at the bar of the Conference.

LEVI D. JOHNSON, Chairman of Committee.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We recognize the fact, that the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, has been an aid and not an hindrance to the success of the mission work of the church; that it is a stimulus to the work at home and abroad, tending to increase missionary interest and missionary collections on the charges where local societies exist; therefore, be it .

Resolved, 1st, That as members of the Iowa Conference, we do what we can to encourage the organizing of local societies in all our charges.

2nd, That we encourage in securing increased contributions to their society.

C. L. TENNANT, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society is doing a work of Christian love, especially among the Indians, the women of Utah, the poor of the South and the needy in our large cities; therefore,

Resolved, That we sympathize with them in this Christian work; that we bid them God-speed, and so far as is in our power, that we will aid them in the organization of auxiliaries.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. BOYD, Chairman.

I. B. SCHRECKENGAST, Secretary.

SPECIAL MINUTE.

The Iowa Conference on account of restricted territory (sixteen counties and a half) since 1860 has not shown to the church at large the growth numerical and financial of the other Conferences in the State. Our territory being the first settled part of the State, the tide of emigration from us has been equal to that from the States further east. The increase each year has been nearly equaled through removals by certificate. Thus while we have furnished material for the organization and strengthening of the church on the frontier, to the uninformed it would appear that aggressiveness has not attended the labors of a generation just passed away, while in fact greater effort has been required to retain former manifested strength with such environments, than to show growth when the tide of emigration stopped.

Without arrogance it can be said a more loyal body of men have never been found in an Annual Conference: Loyal to God, the church and each other.

The sessions of the Conference have seldom been protracted and the church scandalized by an arrest of character and trial; and we have been free for many years from the ever to be condemned method of politicians seeking preferment or place. Our annual gatherings have been healthful religiously to the members of the body and those who entertained us.

The session of 1890, however, was one of unusual interest and will live in the memory of all who enjoyed it. From the opening to the close the Spirit's influence was felt, and His power displayed. All were "In the Spirit on the Lord's Day." The Love Feast was led by J. B. Hardy. It was an inspiration to all. The sermon by Bishop Joyce was eminently practical, and positively spiritual, melting all hearts into tenderness. At the close of a most tenderly conducted memorial service, the pentecostal service led by Dr. W. A. Spencer resulted in several conversions. The evening service, under the direction of Dr. Spencer, was an occasion long to be remembered. Twenty-three during the Sabbath services made a profession of saving faith. Bishop Taylor and Dr. Spencer were at their best, and added greatly to the religious interest of the session. With such men as Bishops Joyce and Taylor and Dr. Spencer to lead the church, we can but find the old paths.

SECRETARY.

(Prepared by order of the Conference.)
